HAND DYED - FLOWERS WILL NOT FADE

6 inch Circle Window
Bluebonnets & Indian Paintbrush

Our Story

Kim and I have been creating Pressed Flower Art since 1988. All our windows contain hand dyed flowers, which make them resistant to fading even when hung in direct sunlight. Isn't that what people do with them anyway? The flowers are then placed between two pieces of high quality beveled glass, so they sparkle even when hung against a wall. Edges are either kept plain and smooth, or a hand soldered decorative beaded border is added. Then the window is waxed and hand polished to a long lasting high gloss.

We hope you enjoy your piece.

Thanks, Kim and Peter
